Declaration of Intention

We,

and

desiring to receive the blessing of Holy Matrimony in the Church, do solemnly declare that we hold marriage to be a life-long union of two people as it is set forth in the Book of Common Prayer.

We believe that the union of two people, in heart, body, and mind, is intended by God for their mutual joy; for the help and comfort given one another in prosperity and adversity; and, when it is God's will, for the procreation of children and their nurture in the knowledge and love of the Lord.

And we do engage ourselves, so far as in us lies, to make our utmost effort to establish this relationship and to seek God's help thereto.

Marriage Homework Family Tree

Part I

Make a family tree, going back no fewer than two generations (to your grandparents) and no farther than four generations and supply the following information:

- Who married whom and how many (include names) children were born?
- What did they do for a living?
- Were any either profoundly wealthy or desperately poor?
- What were their greatest joys as a couple and/or family?
- What were their greatest challenges as a couple and/or family?
- Were their issues of addiction (drugs, alcohol, gambling, over-eating, sexual, etc.)?

The creation of this family tree will invariably involve interviewing parents and/or grandparents and asking questions. Do not do this exercise from memory without consulting these people, when living and available. Feel free to share that you are doing this as an exercise in preparation for marriage.

Part II

Create three lists, with no fewer than ten items on each list, completing the questions below (one list with ten items for each sentence):

- I was/am attracted to my fiancé because
- I believe that my fiancé was/is attracted to me because
- I feel loved and cared for when my fiancé

Be specific in your completion of these sentences. “Because he’s/she’s nice” is of no help at all. The more specific the better.

Turn these assignments in at the next session.

Marriage Preparation Bible Study

In a Bible that is easy for you to read and understand, look up the following passages with your partner. Read them carefully and discuss them individually. Then, after you have read and studied each, write a brief reflection on each one of them covering the following areas:

- A. What basically is being said by the writer?
- B. Does this have anything to offer my/our particular situation today?
- C. How, if at all, could that impact our married life?

Do this together and take your time; do not try and do all of these passages at one sitting. Continue your reflection on the back of these pages if additional space is necessary. Bring this completed Bible study back at the next session.

Genesis 1:26-28

Genesis 2:4-9, 15-24

Song of Solomon 2:10-13, 8:6-7

Tobit (Apocrypha) 8:5b-8

Worksheet on the Theology of the Marriage Rite

[To be completed after group session #5 on the Marriage Rite.]

This worksheet is designed to be used with the Marriage Rite on pages 423-433 in the Book of Common Prayer. Read and study those pages, working through the questions below.

How can we say that the bond and covenant of marriage was established at creation? (p. 423)

How do we know that Jesus supported the institution of marriage? (p. 423)

What do the relationship of husband and wife have in common with the mysterious relationship of Christ and the Church? (p. 423)

What are the three purposes behind Christian marriage? (p. 423)

3.

There are some specific words in the Declaration of Consent (Book of Common Prayer, page 424) that speak to the relationship that a wife and husband create in Holy Matrimony. What is meant by the following words?

covenant:

comfort:

honor:

keep:

forsake:

faithful:

At the end of the Declaration of Consent the bride and groom each respond by saying “I will”. What does this expression signify?

In your own words, what does the Collect after the Declaration of Consent (BCP, bottom of page 425) ask God to do for the bride and groom?

In your own words, what are the promises that the bride and groom make to each other (BCP, page 427)?

Of what does the wedding ring remind its wearer?

What three ways do brides and grooms bind themselves to each other during this ceremony (BCP, page 428)?

Answer the following questions with respect to the Prayers for the Bride and Groom (BCP, page 429):

Why would a bride and groom need to be wise and devout?

Why would a bride and groom want to grow closer to God?

What needs to happen between a bride and a groom when one has hurt the other?

The Church would allege that it is not important who begins the above process. What theological precedent is set in the Cross for forgiveness and reconciliation?

What sign is available to the world when they look at a married couple?

What is assumed if God grants the gift of a child or children to a married couple?

What is a natural outcome of a couple living a fulfilled, affectionate life together?

What should married couples who go to a wedding get out of it?

The Blessing of the Marriage (BCP, page 430) implies that God's final act for a bride and groom, united and faithful to each other, will be what?

[Turn in this worksheet to Fr. Jambor as soon as possible after completion.]
