

The Eleventh Sunday After Pentecost

Rite I

11:15 a.m. (choral)

August 8, 2021

Welcome to All Saints' Episcopal Church!

Thank you for joining us for worship today. This bulletin is intended to aid your devotions. The page numbers refer to the red Book of Common Prayer in the pew rack in front of you. The hymnal is the blue book. The hymns with an "S" before the number are in the front of the hymnal. Don't be shy about turning to someone near you and asking for help.

All who have been baptized, regardless of denomination, may receive communion. If you haven't been baptized, please come forward at during the ministration of communion for a blessing. Simply cross your arms over your chest to let the priest know that you'd prefer a blessing.

So that we can welcome you personally, please fill out a visitor card – found in the pew rack – and place it in the offering plate. After the service, if you go to the back of the church and identify yourself to an usher, you will be given a visitor bag containing a gift and lots of information. We hope to see you again.

The flowers on the altar are given for the greater glory of God and in honor of the choir and Clive Driskill-Smith by Tom and Harriett O'Connor.

A Word to Parents of Young Children

We are delighted to have children join us for worship. We encourage you to sit close to the front of the church, so that your child can get a better view of what is going on at the altar. Ask any usher for a Busy Bag – a cloth sack containing items for quiet play.

Please turn off cellphones and other electronic devices that could intrude on the solemnity of this service.

Grant to us, Lord, we beseech thee, the spirit to think and do always such things as are right, that we, who cannot exist without thee, may by thee be enabled to live according to thy will; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who liveth and reigneth with thee and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

The First Lesson, Deuteronomy 8:1-10 (sit)

Revised Standard Version

Moses summoned all Israel, and said to them, "All the commandment which I command you this day you shall be careful to do, that you may live and multiply, and go in and possess the land which the LORD swore to give to your fathers. And you shall remember all the way which the LORD your God has led you these forty years in the wilderness, that he might humble you, testing you to know what was in your heart, whether you would keep his commandments, or not. And he humbled you and let you hunger and fed you with manna, which you did not know, nor did your fathers know; that he might make you know that man does not live by bread alone, but that man lives by everything that proceeds out of the mouth of the LORD. Your clothing did not wear out upon you, and your foot did not swell, these forty years. Know then in your heart that, as a man disciplines his son, the LORD your God disciplines you. So you shall keep the commandments of the LORD your God, by walking in his ways and by fearing him. For the LORD your God is bringing you into a good land, a land of brooks of water, of fountains and springs, flowing forth in valleys and hills, a land of wheat and barley, of vines and fig trees and pomegranates, a land of olive trees and honey, a land in which you will eat bread without scarcity, in which you will lack nothing, a land whose stones are iron, and out of whose hills you can dig copper. And you shall eat and be full, and you shall bless the LORD your God for the good land he has given you."

The Gradual, Psalm 34:1-8

Benedicam Dominum

Stephen Elvey

- 1 I will bless the / LORD at / all times; *
his praise shall / ever be / in my / mouth.
- 2 I will / glory in the / LORD; *
let the / humble / hear and re - / joice.
- 3 Proclaim with me the / greatness of the / LORD; *

-- / happy are / they who / trust in him!

The Second Lesson, Ephesians 4:30-5:2

Revised Standard Version

Do not grieve the Holy Spirit of God, in whom you were sealed for the day of redemption. Therefore be imitators of God, as beloved children. And walk in love, as Christ loved us and gave himself up for us, a fragrant offering and sacrifice to God.

CHESHIRE

Blue Hymnal 581, Where charity and love prevail (1-3/4-6)

The Holy Gospel, John 6:37-51

Revised Standard Version

Before the Gospel: Glory be to thee, O Lord.

Jesus said to the people, "All that the Father gives me will come to me; and him who comes to me I will not cast out. For I have come down from heaven, not to do my own will, but the will of him who sent me; and this is the will of him who sent me, that I should lose nothing of all that he has given me, but raise it up at the last day. For this is the will of my Father, that every one who sees the Son and believes in him should have eternal life; and I will raise him up at the last day." The Jews then murmured at him, because he said, "I am the bread which came down from heaven." They said, "Is not this Jesus, the son of Joseph, whose father and mother we know? How does he now say, 'I have come down from heaven'?" Jesus answered them, "Do not murmur among yourselves. No one can come to me unless the Father who sent me draws him; and I will raise him up at the last day. It is written in the prophets, 'And they shall all be taught by God.' Every one who has heard and learned from the Father comes to me. Not that any one has seen the Father except him who is from God; he has seen the Father. Truly, truly, I say to you, he who believes has eternal life. I am the bread of life. Your fathers ate the manna in the wilderness, and they died. This is the bread which comes down from heaven, that a man may eat of it and not die. I am the living bread which came down from heaven; if any one eats of this bread, he will live for ever; and the bread which I shall give for the life of the world is my flesh."

After the Gospel: Praise be to thee, O Christ.
